This is for the lifesavers at RNLI.org

I'm braving the challenge of lasting days without tea, coffee, wine beer and fizzy drinks. It's going to be a challenge, but it's all for a good cause: helping the RNLI and their amazing lifeboat crews and lifeguards to save lives at sea. It would be great if you could support me in my challenge. Details of how you can donate are above, or come and talk to me to learn more.
