MAKE AN EGG-CELLENT Present

Our crews carry out acts of kindness all year round by saving people in danger. But what could you do to spread some joy? Here’s an idea. Make someone a papier-mâché egg surprise – you could decorate it like an Easter egg!

YOU’LL NEED:

- a balloon
- newspaper (or tissue paper)
- PVA glue*
- a bowl
- water
- scissors
- a paint brush
- paint

WHAT DO I DO?

1. Blow up the balloon until it’s a good size, like a big Easter egg.
2. Tear your newspaper or tissue paper into strips.
3. Mix two parts glue to one part water in a bowl to make papier-mâché paste.
4. Dip your paper strips into the paste and stick them smoothly onto the balloon.
5. Keep going until you have about three layers of papier-mâché. Don’t cover the tied-up end of the balloon.
6. Let the papier-mâché dry completely. This might take a while. Do some star jumps or have a tasty snack while you wait.
7. Once it’s dry, you could paint the balloon or cut out paper shapes (like hearts or stars) to stick on.
8. POP! Ask a grown-up to pop the balloon inside for you. And your egg is finished!

*No glue? Mix up a little flour and water instead
